

Firstly I would like to thank the Committee of The Guernsey Kennel Club for inviting me to come and judge at their show. From the moment I landed to boarding the flight home I can say it was a great experience which I will not forget. The Hotel was faultless. The show was run in a professional manner. Some quality dogs for me to judge and some hard decisions had to be made. Thank you all for accepting my decisions.

TERRIERS

CESKY TERRIER. (1)

LIMIT.

1st. Marett's Gayteckels Bak In The Abbott. Nice size and shape, well proportioned with good head, well set ears and correct dentition. In good coat and moves well.

OPEN (2)

1st. Marett's Lastarean Grace and Favour For Gayteckels PdH. A super bitch what screams quality. Lovely head, straight in front, medium length of neck and well placed shoulders. Good length of body with correct tuck up and rise over loin. Powerful rear which she uses to her advantage. On the move I could not fault, lovely driving action and straight coming and going. After awarding her Terrier G 1 it was great to watch her go on and take BIS.

2nd. Marett's Idefix Day Break At Gayteckels.

STAFFORDSHIRE BULL TERRIER

LIMIT (1)

1st. Fletcher & Seedhouse's Granitangel Zirconia Pearl. A nice enough young bitch but very raw and one which will settle as she matures. Maturing along the right lines, unsettled on the move and one I feel needs time.

OPEN (2 & 1)

1st. Fletcher & Seedhouse's Granitangel Supergiant. A typy dog, good head, powerful jaw, strong neck and well placed shoulders. Straight in front with ample depth of brisket. A little longer than my previous class winner but scores in head and movement, he moves with drive and power. A super moving dog. BOB & G 3

IRISH TERRIER.

PUPPY (1)

1st. Kucza's Amberville Fortune Cookie. Up to size and would prefer a little more length to neck. Nice enough head, well placed shoulders, straight in front and good colour. In good coat with nice jacket, good rear angles and moves quite well for a youngster. BP & PG1

OPEN (1)

1st. Kucza's Brazen Amber Pageant. A touch wide in skull, good ear set, nice in front, good lay to shoulders but would prefer a little more depth of brisket. Correct top line with decent rear angulation. Moves okay. BOB & G 4

AVNPC

LIMIT (1)

1st. Smith's Romainville Bilbo Baggins (Glenn Of Imaal Terrier) 12 months young and at present he is carrying a tad too much weight. Decent head, good front, nice rear angles and moves well with power and drive.

OPEN (1)

1st. Walker's CH & JSY CH Dobelands Silent Danger. (SFT). Lovely head with nice eye and good ear set, straight in front and enough bone. Ample depth of chest and nice length of neck into well laid shoulders. Well bodied, nice top line and tail set, just lacks rear angulation. Best AVNPC & G 2.

OPEN DOG (1)

1st. De Carteret's Bitcon Spy For Derrindee. A dog what I felt was carrying a little too much weight on the day but enjoyed his day and one who moved well.

OPEN BITCH (3 & 1)

1st. Smith & Ozanne's Lyntonwold Lallique. Balanced and Typy, good eye and expression. Muscular neck into well laid sloping shoulders, lovely straight front. Good top line and tail set. Well sprung ribs with good rear angles and moves well. Had to bow to the kennel mate puppy today.
2nd. Wilkinson's Beaucott Misty Skye.

LABRADOR RETRIEVER

LIMIT (1)

1st. Sharpe's Kermouster Black Magic. A balanced bitch and feminine in head. Well placed shoulders and good depth of brisket. Decent rear angulation but carrying a little too much weight on the day. Moved very well. BOB.

OPEN (2)

1st. Sharpe's Carriegame New Beginnings of Kermouster. Nice bitch with good head and in proportion. Nice length of neck and good shoulders. Lovely top line which she held on the move. Good rear angulation but preferred the movement on her kennel mate in the previous class for best of breed.
2nd. Haynes's Sandylands Fun Time.

IRISH SETTER

PUPPY. (1).

1st. Cox's Tiroen Too Darn Hot. This is a lovely youngster and maturing nicely. Lots to like about him. In great proportion. Good length of head and nice eye giving correct expression. Nice length of neck into well placed sloping shoulders. Lovely top line held on the move. One who moves very well on firm rear muscle tone. Very close for best of breed. splitting hairs with open dog.

OPEN. (2)
